

The interview

Mercedes looks in her mirror getting dressed in her business fashion attire. I have got to get this job my rent is due, and I have to do whatever it takes to make it happen. Mercedes has been going through the daily struggles of New York. She has worked hard but the job market is more competitive than others. Mercedes is looking for anything to make something happen. An eviction notice sits on the table as he tries to get a mindset ready for the interview. "OK, everything will turn out fine I just have to relax."
Mercedes grabs The keys to our car and heads out the door.

While driving down the road she thinks of the ways that she can get the job even though she is very desperate she tries to keep her mindset positive. I have to get this job and I will do anything. I'm about to be evicted out of my apartment I can't take living out on the streets again.

Mercedes comes to the building and parks her car. She slowly steps out of a car and takes a deep breath. Mercedes is very professional and a hard-working individual. She has nice smooth skin a white smile and a sexy figure even though completely clothed in professional clothing. Mercedes slowly walks up the steps and prepares herself.

Mercedes walks to the front desk and asks for Mr. Harrison who is over in the hiring department. She tells her that he is on the 10th floor and points to the elevator.

Mercedes waits for the elevator door and walks in. As the elevator slowly comes up she tells herself "I have to do anything to get this job," so she slowly opens a little cleavage to showcase her chest.

As the elevator door opens and she walks through the elevator doors to the glass doors. She then goes around the corner down into a hallway to see Mr. Harrison's witness desk.

Good morning Ms. Mercedes it's nice to finally meet you but unfortunately, I have to tell you that you are 15 minutes late for your interview. I will have to be leaving now.

Mercedes's heartbeat is at a rapid pace. "Please Mr. Harrison I understand that everything is urgent but I need this job." Mercedes begs

"I'm sorry man but I have to go."
Mr. Harrison replies.

Mercedes is very desperate and blocks in the hallway, "please there has to be something that I could do please I need a job and I'm about to lose my apartment. Give me about 10 minutes.

"This is crazy"
Mr. Harrison says "I have to go please move out the way."

"Mercedes I need you to move before I call security this is very unprofessional and I have to go."

"I will do anything I beg you."
She cries out.

"Move out of the way you're sounding very foolish!"

"I need you to move out the way now move!"

"Come on Mr. Harrison can I do anything I'll give you a good time, please."
She replies in a seductive voice.

She tries to hold Mr. Harrison by the wall and gets on her knees.

“I’ve got to go and get out of the way I have no time for this!”

There is a moment of silence

Before he knew it his dick was inside her mouth being sucked in such a way he had never imagined. He wanted to tell her to stop but it felt so good.

“Please I can do this every day for you just give me a chance at the job.”
She says seductively

He tries to push her off and then she deep throats his entire shaft

“Fuck I need you to stop!”

“No, I need this job.”
She replies

Before he knew it he was hard as he had ever been enjoying a pleasure.

“Can I please have a job please I do this every day? Let me bend over and let you have your way with me.”

She bends over revealing a nice thick ass and her pussy is dripping through her pants

“Please fuck me and any time you want daddy.”

Mr. Harrison knew this was wrong but had never seen an ass that look so round and fat like this before.

He slipped into temptation and slid in

“Yes daddy let me be your office slut”
She moans out

As she moans fucked across the table she replies,

“I feel you all in my stomach daddy I know this is wrong but this feels so fucking good. I feel every inch of you daddy.”

He grabs her hair and pounds her viciously

“Sounds like you got the interview, Ms. Mercedes.”

Sounds of ass clapping, wet pussy echo throughout the office loudly

“Mmm, I’m addicted to your Dick Mr. Harrison.”
